

COMIC STRIP POINT OF VIEW (20 POINTS)

Students will create 3 comic strips to show the 3 different kinds of point of view that we have learned this week

- Comic strips will be 1st person, 3rd person limited, and 3rd person omniscient--each one will be a different mini story/scene - Could link to Outsiders (cannot be the story already in the book)
- Each strip must contain:
 - 1) Narration (in the boxes above the pictures --- use word choice that reflects that POV (I, he, she, etc))
 - 2) Dialogue (word bubbles) --- This will always be written in first person (just like normal dialogue)
 - 3) Thoughts (cloud bubbles) --- thoughts show limited or omniscient
 - 4) Pictures and Storyline --- Not Picaso? Make a good story then!! (But you still need drawings that show effort)
- Each comic strip will be 4-8 pictures (frames/scenes) per POV type
- Advanced Option - Create one story using all three types of POV
